

Intercountry Committees Preconvention: Opening Opportunities for Peace

11 June 2020 | Taipei, Taiwan

Program tracks and session descriptions

Track 1: Creating, Organizing, and Managing Intercountry Committees

Session A: Starting and managing an Intercountry Committee

Learn about the history of ICCs and how you can start various types of ICC relationships.

Session B: Pioneering Meaningful Opportunities Through Intercountry Committees

See how ICCs can be adapted to the demands of a changing world, giving members greater opportunities to engage and expand our reach.

Session C: Open Discussion With Intercountry Committee Leaders and RI Staff

Rotary staff members will speak about the role ICCs play in Rotary's peace strategy. Presenters will also explore how the ICC structure creates opportunities for international partnerships and peacebuilding activities. Then participants will be able to pose questions to the ICC executive council, Rotary senior leaders, and RI staff, ask for policy clarifications, and get guidance on engaging clubs and members through ICCs

Track 2: Intercountry Committees in Action: Build Fellowship and Development Projects for Good

Session A: Peace Without Borders: Intercountry Committees and Local Projects

See how ICC projects can foster peace locally. We'll showcase successful projects that ICCs have led and discuss how your ICC can replicate their success.

Session B: Rotaractors and Intercountry Committees: Young Leaders in Action

This joint session is open to Rotaract Preconvention attendees. We'll reimagine how Rotaract clubs can participate in ICCs to strengthen their international service work and build partnerships with Rotary and Rotaract clubs in other countries.

Session C: Intercountry Committees and Rotary Areas of Focus: How ICCs support Rotary's priorities

Explore how partnerships and projects that are created through ICCs support our efforts in Rotary's areas of focus.

Track 3: Building Peace Through Intercountry Committees

Session A: Overcoming Tense Relationships Through Intercountry Committees

See examples of ICCs that build peace between countries that historically have had tense relations – and even armed conflict – with each other.

Session B: Intercountry Committees: Ambassadors of Peace

Learn how activities undertaken by ICCs reflect Rotary's interconnectivity and international reach to make a positive impact where they're needed most.

Session C: The Mediterranean Peace Initiative: Building Bridges Between Communities
ICCs bring together members from different regions to build intercultural understanding. We'll discuss how ICCs provide a platform for dialogue in the Mediterranean region.
